Professor J. R. Kline, Secretary
American Mathematical Society
University of Pennsylvania
Philadelphia 4
Pennsylvania.

Dear Professor Kline,

Some time ago I received a letter from you in which you requested payment of my dues as a member of your society.

As it was difficult to obtain dollars at this time, I asked the Livraria Civilização Brasileiro to pay for me as they had done in the past. Apparently they did not do so, and I am writing to ask if it is possible for me to continue as a member, remitting my late dues in another way. If this meets with your approval, I would like to know the amount of my debt in order to make the necessary arrangements.

I am very sorry to have inconvenienced you, but I am sure that you will understand that the cause was the intricacy of international finances.

Sincerely,

Abrahão de Moraes
