Gentlemen:

At the present time there is open on your account the sum of $257.78 representing credit memorandums issued on September 5, 1947 and February 27, 1948 for $12.88 and $244.90.

In previous correspondence, you have indicated that we should maintain these amounts in your account pending the receipt of an additional order. You also indicated that you had intended to buy some scientific books and would therefore request us to make payment from your account. After this payment was made, we were to deposit the balance with the Guaranty Trust Company of New York to account No. 17613 of Dr. Hanns Stammreich.

In the absence of any further correspondence, we would appreciate your authorizing us by return air mail to deposit the full amount of your credit balance with the Guaranty Trust Company thereby enabling us to complete our records on these transactions.

Very truly yours,
